

The proposed ruling on June 2 to further deregulate media outlets is absolutely appalling. As a professor of media studies, I am deeply troubled by this staggering attack on democracy. Please, please reconsider your vote and maintain -- what is left of-- our media concentration protections.